Good morning,

It may be too late to offer this suggestion, but every year multiple people in my office that must fill out the recertification form are confused as to whether the original 4 IAAO courses need to be listed under the "Approved Courses". That is, the initial required courses (101, 102, + 2 electives). I understand now that I do not have to list those courses for recertification, but that is not clear anywhere on the form on in the instructions. Thank you for your time and consideration on this matter.

Sincerely,

Kristy Ashley
