INSTRUCTIONS

The Florida Department of Revenue (Department) provides training and certification for Florida

- county property appraisers and employees
- county tax collectors and employees

Certification

To become certified as one of the following Florida professional designees, you must have two years of experience employed in a Florida property appraiser office, a Florida tax collector office, or with the Department and meet certain requirements:

- Certified Florida Appraiser
- Certified Florida Evaluator
- Certified Cadastralist of Florida
- Certified Florida Collector
- Certified Florida Collector Assistant

To become a Certified Florida Appraiser or Certified Florida Evaluator you must complete:

- a minimum of 30 hours of approved courses which include instruction and examination on basic appraisal principles, types of value, and economic principles pertaining to the valuation of real property
- a minimum of 30 hours of approved courses which include instruction and examination on procedures and methods regarding the income approach to estimating the value of real property
- an additional 60 hours of approved elective courses which include instruction and examination related to the professional designation

To become a Certified Cadastralist of Florida you must complete:

- a minimum of 30 hours of approved courses which include instruction and examination on mathematic principles for cadastral mappers
- a minimum of 30 hours of approved courses which include instruction and examination on the Public Land Survey System for cadastral mappers
- a minimum of 30 hours of approved courses which include instruction and examination on real property descriptions
- a minimum of 30 hours of approved courses which include instruction and examination on basic map compilation
- a minimum of 30 hours of approved elective courses which include instruction and examination on principles, techniques, or applications of cadastral mapping

To become a Certified Florida Collector or Florida Certified Collector Assistant you must complete:

- a minimum of 30 hours of approved courses which includes instruction and examination on the duties and responsibilities of a Florida tax collector
- a minimum of 90 hours of approved elective courses which include instruction and examination designed to impart expertise in the areas of tax administration, assessment, or collection in Florida

Course Approval and Examinations

All courses for certification or reinstatement must be approved by the Department. Courses that are determined by the Department to meet the requirements and are approved courses for certification, recertification or reinstatement are published on the Department's Certification and Training webpage https://floridarevenue.com/property/Pages/Cofficial_Training.aspx. You must pass all required examinations for each required course to obtain course credit.

Annual Recertification Due January 1

To be recertified each calendar year, all Florida professional designees must certify their governmental employment and pay the $5 recertification fee each January 1. Recertification fees become delinquent April 1.

Florida county property appraisers and tax collectors must complete a minimum of 24 hours of approved courses. In addition to the approved courses listed on the Department's Certification and Training webpage, continuing education courses, seminars, workshops, and conferences will be approved on a case-by-case basis. See Form DR-4002, Application for Approval of a Course or Continuing Education Credit Hours (incorporated by reference in Rule 12D-16.002, F.A.C.)

Special Salary for Officials

To qualify for and receive the special qualification salary provided in Section 145.10 or 145.11, Florida Statutes, property appraisers and tax collectors must meet all certification requirements within four years after taking office.

Reinstatement

Each certification is conditional upon governmental employment and expires automatically if you leave governmental employment or you fail to meet the annual recertification requirements. Once your professional certification has expired, you may apply for reinstatement.

Property appraisers and tax collectors must complete 24 hours of continuing education courses. All applicants must certify their governmental employment and pay the reinstatement fee.

If you are unable to submit your completed application or pay the fee online, mail your completed application, copies of certificates of completed courses, and a check or money order for the required fee to:
