I. Participating in Public Meetings Using the Internet

To participate in a Florida Department of Revenue public meeting using the internet, there are two options:

1. Register with WebEx, a web and phone sharing program. Internet access and a direct-line telephone (area code+ 7 digit phone number with no extension) are required. Benefits include:
  - Seeing and hearing meeting participants in real-time. WebEx service is free; there is no cost to participate via WebEx.
  - Viewing documents presented during the meeting on your computer in real-time.
2. By teleconference.
  - You will not be able to view documents in real time.
  - Documents will be available on the website prior to the public meeting and also for downloading during the meeting.
  - You can submit public comments by sending an email to a designated email account and having it read into the meeting's record by a Revenue staff member.

Details for the Communication Service Tax Working Group Public Meeting on Monday, June 11, 2012 at 9:00 am are listed below:

WebEx Registration:

1. Register at the following link:
