Santa Rosa County Surtax Rate Update

On November 3, 2026, voters in Santa Rosa County approved ballot referendums extending the expiration date of Santa Rosa County's 0.5% local government infrastructure surtax from December 31, 2026, to December 31, 2031, and 0.5% school capital outlay surtax from December 31, 2028, to December 31, 2038. The total state and local sales and use tax rate for Santa Rosa County will continue to be 7%.

The total rate for Santa Rosa County is composed of Florida's 6% state sales and use tax, a 0.5% local government infrastructure surtax, and a 0.5% school capital outlay surtax. State sales tax and local surtaxes collected must be reported and remitted to the Florida Department of Revenue (Department).
