Date Issued:

Unemployment Tax
Summary of Amounts
Past Due (UCT-27)

We have been advised that a number of erroneous Summary of Amounts Past Due (Form UCT-27) notices may have been issued due to a problem with synchronization of payment and report programs run by the Department of Revenue. The period in question is the second quarter of 2008. We have some indication that this may have also occurred during the first quarter of 2008.

We are working to correct the timing of nightly program updates so that payments and reports match against each other before the UCT-27 notices are mailed. This should prevent this error from occurring in the future.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.
